Born in Vinnitsa, Ukraine, Ms. Lesya Osipova came to the U.S. in 2001 with a degree in world literature and English from the Uman University. Having lived in the States for only two years, Lesya became a top-notch legal secretary in a small law firm before joining Jim Reid at the mid-size Manhattan law firm in which he practiced prior to establishing the firm.

Lesya's sparkling personality, keen intellect, charm, excellent work ethic and organizational skills propelled her to the position of office manager and chief operating officer of Reid Michaelis. She effectively oversees all administrative aspects of the firm and, in particular, does a superb job of interacting with all individual clients worldwide.

Lesya, a key element to the success of the firm, currently lives in Middletown, New York, with her husband and son, Daniel. She is fluent in Russian and is an avid reader of mystery and suspense, and masters all computer systems required by Reid Michaelis.

Lesya is a member of the New York City Chapter of Association of Legal Administrators and currently serves as a Vice President of the Chapter.
